

THE VENDUE

CHARLESTON'S ART HOTEL

Overview

Go big or go home. And let's face it, you're NOT home... on purpose. The Vendue—with its historical bones (think 1780) nestled within the popular French Quarter in Charleston—is anything but traditional or stale in its design, aesthetic, and vibe. We're here to shake things up and bring events to life—with flair! Not your typical or traditional backdrop, we offer a canvas appealing to a variety of visions—be it for business or pleasure. How creative, daring, beautiful and inspirational do you wanna get? We've got the moxie. Do you?

Location

You know what they say about location. We do, too... which is why we're able to brag on the fact that our address is right in the middle of all the good stuff here in Charleston. Adjacent to Waterfront Park, Charleston Harbor in the heart of the famous French Quarter, we're literally steps away from the area's famed historic houses, lush gardens, popular restaurants, stores, houses of worship, galleries... you get the point. Location? It's real good.

Art

As Charleston's first and only hotel dedicated to art—in all forms—The Vendue seeks to exhibit striking artwork that inspires visitors as much as it does us. Displaying contemporary, compelling and adventurous pieces at every turn and using our historic walls as canvases, we have thoughtfully collected, curated, and continually rotate over 200 pieces of original art for all to enjoy. The Vendue is a destination unto itself giving the hotel an opportunity to show its good taste and passion for art. The main exhibition space covers the entirety of 19 Vendue... public spaces, corridors, nooks... even the bathrooms have art! At 26 Vendue, it's the same story, except there's a working artist's studio and exhibition space solely dedicated to rotating and seasonal displays.

Dining

From top to bottom, Revival and The Rooftop Bar offer nothing but sheer delight and delicious revelry. After all, appeasing your good taste is an honor. We invite you to enjoy both the restaurant and the bar as each is teeming with their own unique flavor and flair. Revival features a more robust and refined menu, while The Rooftop Bar is a lively haven of good times offering cocktails that go down easy and a menu featuring some edible “greatest hits.” For overnight guests who can’t be bothered with a social setting at the time, we offer in-room dining. As for catering, we take this as an opportunity to flex some creative muscles. Let our chef do the honors for you by creating and curating a menu that is delectable and detailed to your liking; even those of a persnickety nature will be well pleased.

Accommodations

Housed in two historic buildings, The Vendue’s accommodations come with modern-day conveniences and amenities (and even some frivolous ones that you didn’t know you wanted or needed). Old school and new school... both buildings represent their own style and vibe. Pick your poison. You can’t go wrong.

19 Vendue is newly-renovated with a modern design aesthetic. Each room is stylishly appointed with bursts of red and gold amongst a clean white slate. Posh, pristine, fancy-feeling.

26 Vendue’s accommodations feature a timeless elegance in its design, honoring our history, heritage, and locale. Old world elegance that envelops you.
