

THE VENDUE CHARLESTON'S ART HOTEL

Overview

Go big or go home. And let's face it, you're NOT home... on purpose. The Vendue—with its historical bones (think 1780) nestled within the popular French Quarter in Charleston—is anything but traditional or stale in its design, aesthetic, and vibe. We're here to shake things up and bring events to life—with flair! Not your typical or traditional backdrop, we offer a canvas appealing to a variety of visions—be it for business or pleasure. How creative, daring, beautiful and inspirational do you wanna get? We've got the moxie. Do you?

Location

You know what they say about location. We do, too... which is why we're able to brag on the fact that our address is right in the middle of all the good stuff here in Charleston. Adjacent to Waterfront Park, Charleston Harbor in the heart of the famous French Quarter, we're literally steps away from the area's famed historic houses, lush gardens, popular restaurants, stores, houses of worship, galleries... you get the point. Location? It's real good.

Art

As Charleston's first and only hotel dedicated to art—in all forms—The Vendue seeks to exhibit striking artwork that inspires visitors as much as it does us. Displaying contemporary, compelling and adventurous pieces at every turn and using our historic walls as canvases, we have thoughtfully collected, curated, and consistently update an extensive collection of original art for all to enjoy. The Vendue is a destination unto itself giving the hotel an opportunity to show its good taste and passion for art.

Dining

From top to bottom, Revival and The Rooftop Bar offer nothing but sheer delight and delicious revelry. After all, appeasing your good taste is an honor. We invite you to enjoy both the restaurant and the bar as each is teeming with their own unique flavor and flair. Revival features a more robust and refined menu, while The Rooftop Bar is a lively haven of good times offering cocktails that go down easy and a menu featuring some edible “greatest hits.” For overnight guests who can’t be bothered with a social setting at the time, we offer in-room dining. As for catering, we take this as an opportunity to flex some creative muscles. Let our chef do the honors for you by creating and curating a menu that is delectable and detailed to your liking; even those of a persnickety nature will be well pleased.

Accommodations

Step into The Vendue, where each room serves as a canvas. A clean white slate with bursts of vibrant reds and luxurious golds. Why? Because you deserve some flair in your stay. This is where posh meets pristine, where contemporary design meets everyday comforts. A place where each room is not just for sleeping but an experience to be savored. You’ll find not just the essentials but also those frivolous little delights you didn’t know you needed—until now. At The Vendue, we offer more than just a place to lay your head; we offer an ambiance that captures your imagination.
